I would be remiss in not letting you know that I frankly do not know of any school in my area where such a meeting would be received very well. The atmosphere is almost hostile in certain areas and I frankly believe that any such program would result in no one accepting an invitation or else they would descend and really try to crucify the speaker. I know that was not to be included but called me the other day to tell me that he had been approached by a representative from the New Republic who inquired about his relationship with the Agency. During our conversation I mentioned the dinners and he said don't even think about having one since it would be a disaster. Even during good times the questions were rough so I imagine this year they would not give any quarter to a speaker. Also have advised against the program. Thus I pass this information to you for what it
